Subject ASSISTANCE TO JAPANESE GENDARMERIE.

Made by D.S.I. MAKLAEVSKY Forwarded by D.I. GLOVER

Sir,

At 11.30 a.m. July 30th. 1938, D.S. Tanaka of the S.P.Office informed D.I. Glover of the request of Warrant - Officer Katoda of the Japanese Gendarmerie for assistance to effect the arrest of one, WONG SHO LO TS (王小二子), residing at Lane No. 741, House No. 56 off Chengtu Road and search his house. According to D.S. Tanaka this man was wanted by the Japanese Gendarmerie in connection with anti-Japanese activities.

According to information the address given was within Chengtu Road Police District and, therefore, D.I. Hill, Senior Detective, was informed accordingly.

The necessary assistance was rendered by D.S.I. Soong Ping Tsung and the undersigned upon instructions of D.I. Glover.

At 2.45 p.m. the Party, in company with D.I. Hill, proceeded to the address given and on way there it was discovered that the address was within Sinza Police District. Upon arrival at the address, the Sinza Police Station were informed by the phone of the case and, consequently, D.S.I. Watson attended.

The wanted man :-

WONG SHO LO TS (王小二子) alias

address given was not located at the Shop as he has, this morning, gone to his native place and it is not known when he will be back.

A search of the Shop revealed a book, title unknown, of anti-Japanese and anti-Imperialistic character which was in the process of printing.

Warrant officer Matoda, through D.S. Mitsushima of the S.P.Office, requested that the printed sheets of the book be removed from the shop owing to anti-Japanese nature of the book. No other literature of the same nature was found.

The printed sheets were removed to C.B.H.Q. (C.I) pending receipt of instructions as to their disposal.

The services of Clerk Lu Shu Fah of the Special Branch were obtained who went through the printed sheets of the book and made the attached excerpts.

(6) The invasion of Thibet by Great Britain.

While the Imperialists in Europe were engaged in a hot fighting, the Japanese Imperialists took advantage of the situation and began an unprecedented, shameful plundering of China.....

PAGE 282

British invasion of Thibet began in the reign of Emperor Tao Kwang in the Taing Dynasty. She prepared her way for getting into touch with Thibet by bringing a country known as "Tsuh Man Yung", which was close to Thibet, under her influence. In 1904, when hostilities broke out between Russia and Japan, Great Britain sent her troops from India into Thibet.....

PAGE 402.

The September 18 Incident was due to Japan's plan to invade China and carry out her continental policy. After the outbreak of the incident, the Japanese bandits created trouble at various sea ports of China. In January 1932 the Japanese committed provocative acts in Shanghai giving rise to the January 28 Incident. The Chinese army at first inflicted heavy losses on the Japanese, but the latter gained the upper hand afterwards by relying on the Foreign Settlement and their superior armaments. After more than one month of fighting,

RECORD OF INVESTIGATION.

Anti Japan to Japanese Military Police.

At 8-10pm. on 30/7/38 a telephone message was received from D.S.I.Haklaevsky, attached to C.I., to the effect that members of the Japanese Military Police were visiting No. 56, Lane 741 Chengtu Road, and requesting the attendance of an officer from Sinza Stn.

C.P.C. 298 and the undersigned attended and found D.I.Hill accompanying the party, he having been informed on the A.M. of 30/7/38 by the D.A. to the D.C. (Crime) that the raid would be made, and he being under the impression that the given address was in Chengtu Road District until the party left Chengtu Road Station.

It was learnt that the Japanese Authorities had requested assistance to arrest one named Wong Soong Yuen(王松雲) alias Wong Siao Loh Tsi(王小六子), the proprietor of a Printing Shop at the above address, he being suspected of having connection with Chinese Mobile Units. It was learnt from the inmates that the above proprietor had left Shanghai on or about 27/7/38.

The premises were searched and several thousands of printed pamphlets, alleged to be Anti-Japanese in nature, were seized and taken to C.I. by D.S.I. Haklaevsky.
